Boy and Girl Thieves Busy In Englewood

There is a great amount of petty thefts reported this week, and it will be well for merchants to watch their exposed counters of small articles. The paper shopping bags have been found convenient by some light-fingered girls as well as boys. The smallest theft reported is the Salvation Army penny charity box taken from Charley Schiff's front display case, and many others are suffering from shop-lifting in various forms. Watch for them and hand them over to the police.

Chicago Vacationists Enjoy Themselves

We have had several good stories from home people who went abroad, some as far as Michigan, to enjoy vacations, and are now bewailing their fate that they did not stay at home and rest comfortably in our pretty parks, our spacious forest preserves and our fifteen miles of bathing beaches. Of course, everyone upon returning home is expected to tell what a nice (?) time they had, but confidentially they will tell you they could have had a better time at home. Maybe this is inspired by a "stay-at-home" who can't get away, but anyway, we know of people who are staying home and enjoying themselves at golf and other pursuits, some even lake fishing, and who write us that they are thankful for our suggestions of some weeks ago.

May Preserve Field's Columbian Museum

The old museum in Jackson park may yet be preserved as a work of art at the request of the Illinois chapter of the American Institute of Architecture. The plan was submitted to the South Park Board last week and President Hutchinson says it will be taken under advisement. It is the unanimous wish of the people of the city to preserve the celebrated building, but heretofore it has been considered impossible owing to the prohibitive cost of restoring it, but the architects have gone over it and it may be possible that the park board will make an appropriation to retain it as a memory of the World's Fair and utilize it as a public meeting place, also for indoor assemblies and entertainments. All of the relics are now removed to the new museum in Grant Park, and we sincerely hope the old building may be restored.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

This time we have a dandy scoop for the Gresham column, and no doubt the community will be unusually proud of its efficient police officers. Through the efforts of Lieut. Joseph Johnson, Sergt. Wm. B. Gooch and Officer Cammack, the $8,000 diamond robbery has been cleared and arrests made. Michael J. Wood, 7643 Union ave., reported the theft, little dreaming that a star roomer had planned it all. Those taken in custody are: Martin L. Adams, Herman Froelich and John Walter. Three cheers for these officers' efficiency.

One of the surprises this week was the filing of a petition and entrance of our old friend Elliott W. Sproul of Beverly Hills in the contest for the Republican nomination for congressman to be decided at the primaries in September. Mr. Sproul is an old timer in Englewood and lived for many years at 65th st. and Yale ave. He was in the contracting business for many years, and in fact is again actively engaged with his son. Mr. Sproul served one term as alderman of the 32nd ward and was one of the leaders in the party councils up to the time he was compelled to retire by ill health. He has entirely recovered and upon the solicitation of many friends has consented to allow his name to go before the primaries. He has received the endorsement of the Thompson Republican organization.

Daily Vacation Bible School Model Session at Normal Park Baptist Church

Do you want to see exactly what the boys and girls have been doing at the Normal Park Baptist Church Daily Vacation Bible School during the past five weeks? A model session, exhibit of work, and presentation of awards will be held at the church next Sunday morning, Aug. 1, at the regular hour of morning service, 10:45 o'clock. You are most cordially invited. You will see the children at school, hear the habit talk and Bible story, hear the children recite scripture and sing the noble hymns of the church which they have learned, and you will join with them in their devotional and patriotic exercises. You will see the beautiful arts and crafts work which they have completed—a variety of articles in pierced brass, sewing, scroll-saw work, hammocks, etc. And you will gain some idea of the permanent enrichment of life which has come to these boys and girls in carrying out this program, in working with the good men and women who have been their teachers, and in their weekly outings and picnics together. The total registration of the school was 133 scholars and 21 teachers. For all this work no teacher receives a penny of remuneration; it is a service of love. No charge is made for the use of the building, light, janitor service, etc.—it is a gift of the church to the community. An offering will be received, however, in connection with the model session, Sunday morning, toward defraying the direct expenses of the school, as craft work material, tools, etc., and it is hoped that this offering will cover all this expense. A most hearty invitation is extended to all who are interested in work that makes the boys' and girls' vacation a brighter and better one. The church is at the corner of 70th st and Stewart ave.

CHARLES RAY

This is an agreeable comedy-drama, with a plot which takes an original twist, contains a pleasing love romance, amusing situations, is not devoid of suspense and holds its interest to the end. The financial ambitions of Homer Cavender arouse a certain measure of sympathy, while at the same time his ingenious methods of realizing them are productive of mirth. His visit to Mainesville and the manner in which he succeeds in awakening the interest of the people to the extent of investing in the factory project is especially amusing.

"Yes or No?"

This melodrama offers a striking contrast between the lives of two women in divers surroundings of riches and poverty, both of whom are confronted with the problem of saying "yes or no" to insistent lovers. The story of the faithful and unfaithful wives, with the former reaping virtue's reward and the latter punishment is ancient enough. But the material is here so skilfully handled that the fortunes of rich and poor are followed with breathless interest by the spectators and even the conventional "happy climax" seems eminently satisfactory. The result is a thoroughly entertaining picture.

ALICE BRADY in "THE FEAR MARKET" REALART PICTURES

Alice Brady "The Dark Lantern"

The hero of "A Dark Lantern" was a very peculiar kind of man. Nobody really knew him very intimately. He was silent, inscrutable, brusque, yet high in his profession and in popular favor. How did he spend his leisure? A regular Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde kind of an enigma was Dr. Garth Vincent. Don't miss seeing James Crane in this fascinating yet sinister role. "A Dark Lantern," starring Alice Brady, is one of the strongest emotional dramas of the picture year.

If you liked the strong emotional acting of Alice Brady in "The Fear Market" and "Sinners," you will find her work even more appealing and convincing in "A Dark Lantern."

Friday and Saturday, July 30th and 31st. Ethel Clayton in "The Ladder of Lies." A very interesting society melodrama. Self-sacrifice, a theme when properly handled, as in this case seldom fails to win an audience's favor. It is exactly the sort of picture likely to please the majority of movie patrons; dealing as it does with complicated domestic relations and heart interest and you will find it a sterling attraction. Also Sunshine Comedy, "The Jazz Band."

Sunday and Monday, Aug. 1st and 2nd. The best comedy of the summer! Douglas McLean and Doris May in "Let's Be Fashionable." You remember these brilliant stars in "23½ Hours' Leave" and also in "Mary's Ankle," don't you? What a hit they made and how they made us all laugh. Well, this is another comedy ten strike—the story of a bride and groom at a fashionable summer resort. Come, laugh and grow fat. Also Chas. Chaplin in "The Immigrant." Added attractions, Sunday, "The Moon Riders" and International News; Monday, Rolin Comedy and Pictograph.

Tuesday, Aug. 3rd, one day only, "The Silver Horde," by Rex Beach, featuring a selected star cast. In physique Rex Beach is the counterpart of many of his fiction heroes, stalwart, inured to hardship, yet fundamentally courteous and a good "pal." These qualities served him well in his adventures in the north. Out of them came a series of stirring novels, such as "Pardners," "The Spoilers," "The Barrier," "The Silver Horde," "The Auction Block," "The Heart of the Sunset" and the "Iron Trail." Several of Mr. Beach's novels have been made into photoplays. "The Silver Horde," Mr. Beach's latest picture, is the photoplay version of his story, "The Silver Horde."

Big double feature program Wednesday, Aug. 4th, "The Bottom of the World," Sir Ernest Shackleton's thrilling attempt to cross the South Pole. For the first time the American public is given an opportunity to really visualize the dangers and hardships encountered by explorers seeking knowledge and information of the vast and heretofore unknown Antarctic regions. It's a pictorial triumph. Also William Desmond in "The Broadway Cowboy." Wm. Desmond needs no introduction to E. A. R. patrons and with another of his famous characteristic pictures we can assure you a pleasant evening's entertainment.

Thursday, Aug. 5th, Cecil B. DeMille offers the other side of "Why Change Your Wife" in his new edition of his famous production, "Old Wives for New."

"Old Wives for New?" Well, I'm afraid
A lot of men might like to trade.
And yet, if only wives were clever,
They'd keep their husband's love forever.

Remember when he used to call,
How he was victim of your thrall?
He thought that you were hard to beat,
Back in the days when you were neat.
He said, "By Gosh! That girl is great!
I'm lucky to get such a mate!"

D'you think he likes his arms about
A woman who's untidy, stout?
How can he call you "Poppy-woppky"
If you have careless grown or sloppy?
If love is waning, try a diet,
And see this picture—it's a riot!

Harvard PICTURE PLAY HOUSE

The splendid organ at the Harvard is taking the place of the orchestra in a very nice manner, in fact the classical selections and really good music is so well enjoyed that the audience is apt to forget the striking fiddlers.

The program for the coming week at the Harvard is of unusual excellence and begins with Charles Ray in his latest rural love story, "Homer Comes Home." This is an agreeable comedy-drama, with a plot which takes an original twist, contains a pleasing love romance, amusing situations, is not devoid of suspense and holds its interest to the end. The financial ambitions of Homer Cavender arouse a certain measure of sympathy, while at the same time his ingenious methods of realizing them are productive of mirth. His visit to Mainesville and the manner in which he succeeds in awakening the interest of the people to the extent of investing in the factory project is especially amusing.

On Sunday, Aug. 1st, charming and dainty Billie Burke appears in a madcap romance of love, laughs and excitement, "Away Goes Prudence." A clever example of how the tables were turned on a girl who tried to fake a kidnaping in order to make her father give her funds for a new airplane, is the theme of "Away Goes Prudence," an original story by Josephine Lovett, in which Billie Burke will star at the Harvard theatre Sunday. Percy Marmont heads a capable supporting company, which includes such well-known players as Maude Turner Gordon, Charles Lane, Dorothy Walters, Bradley Barker, M. W. Rale and Albert Hackett. John S. Robertson was the director.

On Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 2nd and 3rd, matinee and night, comes the great sensation of the season, Robert Warwick and Bebe Daniels in "The 14th Man." Robert Warwick in kilties is a feature of "The 14th Man." He has the role of an officer in a Highland regiment whose habit of always helping out the underdog gets him into difficulties and forces him to flee the country. In America he encounters more adventures, including a set-to in a prize ring and a certain pretty girl. However, all ends happily. Bebe Daniels is the leading woman, and a clever cast surrounds Mr. Warwick. It is a Paramount Artcraft picture. Also the pictures of Sir Ernest Shackleton's quest of a lifetime in his South Pole expedition, "The Bottom of the World," a wonderful pictorial journey through the perilous seas at the Antarctic. Marvelous, daring, instructive and thrilling beyond words.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 4th and 5th, they present Alice Brady, the beautiful child of the stage, in the most tense drama of her screen career, "A Dark Lantern." Gilt braid or pills? There were two men who appealed to her. One was a prince who wore uniforms with buttons and gilt braid and orders and things, while the other was just a doctor, whose specialty was cynicism and pills—bitter ones. Katherine had to swallow a lot of them, but somehow she preferred them to the prince's sugary sentiments. See Alice Brady make this important choice in "A Dark Lantern." Very amusing and absolutely funny comedies follow the main attractions each matinee and night and a good show all the time.

Tuesday, Matinee and Night

CORINNE GRIFFITH

It was particularly appropriate that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, should have selected Corinne Griffith for the leading role of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers," for she has been steadily climbing ever since she left her home in the south to become a film player. Now she has reached the top rung of film success. In addition to her imposing personal appearance and histrionic talent, Miss Griffith has the happy faculty of wearing beautiful and unusual gowns with grace and has had a splendid athletic training. Some of her most recent features have been "A Girl at Bay," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collateral" and "Deadline at Eleven."

Shure I heard a mon a-spakin' this marnin' on the strate;
He wor tellin' all the fellys the wan big thing to bate
This blamed high cost iv livin' is fer ivry single soul
To jump roight in an' hustle till production hits the goal.
An' begorra, I've bin thinkin' thot it's squarely up to me
To pull me waist-coat off me back an' show sum inergy!
Now while thim fareign diplomats are ranglin' over Fiume,
An' the Bolsheviks are scrappin' to hasten Russia's doom,
Ye'll find me wet with honest sweat a-workin' wid me truck,
The stuff a-movin' just thot fast ye'll think a cyclone struck.

Fer Oi'm demonstratin' qualities of a good American.
If production's goin' to help us straighten out this jumblin' mess
Why ivery mother's son of us must do our very best.
Fer what's the use iv harborin' discontintment an' the likes?
We're surely gittin' nowhere wid our parleys an' our strikes.

Casey says: "Sum min die haard, an' thin they do be others who are dead easy."

If you don't think a woman can keep a secret, ask her age—and then run.

Casey says the nose is the cheapest part of the face, as it consists of nostrils which are two for a scent—help!

I rather think California has nothing on us in the way of climate, but then we have no earthquakes to amuse the people.

A colored man told another of a brother who had died from eating too much watermelon. "Too much watermillion?" queried the one; "Ah don't believe there is no such thing as too much!"

I wonder if it is their funny name or only the funny colors of their store fronts that causes the Piggly-Wiggly's to be the almost daily victim of hold-up men?

Those whose leases expire in the fall will have more sympathy for those whose expired in the spring, in a few days when they get their notice of a "raise," as it will be even higher than the spring raise.

After trying for some time to get his knife into a steak at one of the quick service lunch rooms yesterday, Casey remarked: "Begorry thot sittles ut, shure now Oi know whoy they do be callin' thim places chop houses; ut takes an ax to chop oop the mate they sarves yez."

The operator at the Englewood railroad station was deeply immersed in his duties yesterday when two husky-looking "hobos" peered in through the window of his shanty and in thick cinder-roughened whispers, said: "Report two empties going east, pardy," and then vanished for the water tank.

A young officer at the front wrote home to his father: "Dear Father—Kindly send me $250 at once. Lost a leg in a stiff engagement, and am in hospital without means." The answer was as follows: "My Dear Son—As this is the fourth leg you have lost (according to your letters) you ought to be accustomed to it by this time. Try and hobble along on any others you may have left."

In honor of a visit to his plant by the governor of the state, an automobile manufacturer once had a complete car assembled in something like seven minutes. Some weeks after this feat was heralded in the daily papers the phone at the factory rang vigorously. "Is it true that you assembled a car in seven minutes at your factory?" the voice asked. "Yes," came the reply. "Why?" "Oh, nothing," said the calm inquirer, "only I've got the car."

Everything was ready for kit inspection; the recruits stood lined up ready for the officer, and the officer had his bad temper all complete. He marched up and down the line, grimly eyeing each man's bundle of needles and soft soap, and then he singled out Private MacTootle as the man who was to receive his attentions. "Tooth brush?" he roared. "Yes, sir." "Razor?" "Yes, sir." "Hold-all?" "Yes, sir." "Hm! You're all right, apparently," growled the officer. Then he barked: "Housewife?" "Oh, very well, thank you," said the recruit amiably. "How's yours?"

Revisits Chicago After 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. LeMessurier, deputy minister of customs of St. Johns, Newfoundland, father of Mr. A. H. LeMessurier of the First National Bank of Englewood, is visiting his son and family, 6432 Harvard ave. Mr. LeMessurier was here as a boy in 1860, was a student at the Skinner school, and heard Abraham Lincoln speak at a political meeting in Ryan's hall. He has a number of photographs of Chicago as it was in those days that are decidedly interesting. Mr. LeMessurier is enjoying a vacation, and is on the retired list of the civil service of Newfoundland. He is a very active young-old gentleman, full of "pep," and most cordial and pleasant. We were honored by a call from him, and enjoyed his reminiscences of Chicago as it was 60 years ago.

Boy Scouts' Camp

Camp Ken Jockety, the Boy Scout camp for the southwest district, located on Diamond Lake, 40 miles northwest of Chicago, is filled to its capacity for the second period. There are still a few places left in the third and fourth periods.

Camp Ken Jockety is everything a scout could wish for. There is good rowing on a lake three miles long and one and one-half miles wide. The swimming—oh, boy! a good sand bottom and a fine beach. There are two swimming periods r day—one before noon mess and the other before evening mess.

Hiking can't be beat—the favorite one is around the lake, a distance of about six miles. In the neighborhood are various summer resorts and Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross camps.

Thus far there have been 150 visitors in camp. On July 22nd, Assistant Scout Executive Green and Dr. Gentiles, head of the Red Cross in Chicago, and Assistant Field Scout Executives Bernd, Miller and Johnson inspected Camp Ken Jockety and found it in tip-top shape. Dr. Gentiles gave the scouts a very interesting talk.

Boy Scouts—the forest, prairies rivers and lakes are calling you from the hot pavements. Come on out into the open and get your lungs full of fresh air.

Dr. Schuessler's Silver Anniversary

On Sunday, July 25th, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Our Redeemer, Princeton ave. at 60th pl., celebrated the 25th anniversary of the installation of its pastor, the Rev. G. Schuessler, at his first charge at Coal City, Ill. At a special service held in the forenoon the Rev. Martin S. Sommer, of St. Louis, preached the anniversary sermon, and the Rev. J. H. Witte addressed the Sunday school. A reception was held in the evening at the New Englewood High School assembly hall, at 62nd st. and Stewart ave. The program of the evening was conducted by Dr. A. J. A. Bachmann, chairman of the arrangements committee, and in addition to attractive musical features, including several choir numbers and piano and violin selections, there were several numbers intended to surprise the guest of the occasion. These consisted of entertaining addresses by two classmates of the Rev. Schuessler, the Rev. H. Boester and the Rev. F. C. Streufert, both of Chicago, also by the Rev. E. F. Haertel, the dean of English Lutheran pastors of the Missouri synod in Chicago, and by the Rev. E. V. Haserodt, of Faith church, in West Auburn. These were followed by short addresses by two members of Redeemer church, Messrs. Edw. C. Buehring and F. G. Christgau. The former concluded his exceedingly appropriate remarks with the presentation of a watch, with chain and fob, suitably engraved to commemorate the occasion, and the latter, after touching upon the desire of the congregation that its pastor be suitably equipped with the means of rapid transit for his professional calls, and intimating that this object might be best attained by the acquirement of a new motor car, handed over, as a slight encouragement in that direction and as a further anniversary gift of the congregation, a check for $2,000.

In his response the Rev. Schuessler stated that the efforts of the committee to surprise him had been a complete success. Redeemer congregation was organized by him about nineteen years ago. Since the erection of the original church building it has twice been found necessary to make additions and alterations to provide more room, and the congregation has for some time been contemplating the erection of an entirely new building in a new location, with a church auditorium large enough to provide seats for about 1,500 persons.

AN APOLOGY

I wish to apologize to my many customers for the service rendered during the past year. While I have at all times given the best possible service, it has been far from satisfactory to me, as strictly high class materials and thoroughly skilled workmen, which is the only kind considered by me, have been hard to procure. Especially during the rush reason of Spring and Fall I have a thoroughly competent force of mechanics, but it is impossible to render absolutely satisfactory service during the rush. So in justice to all, I advise my many customers to have as much work done as possible during July and August, for not only is it a more dull season, but varnishes and enamels dry more satisfactory during the hot months and we are now in a position to give you better service and I now have a much more complete line of High Class Upholstering Materials than will be possible to show you later in the season. I have just received a beautiful line of Cane Parlor Suites and Overstuffed Frames which you may have made to order in just the style and quality you desire at a saving of $75 to $100 a suite. Place your order now for future delivery. "Style and Quality at a Saving." Your old furniture refinished, upholstered and remodeled into the latest style at the lowest prices---quality considered.

Thanking you for past orders, I beg to remain,

Respectfully yours,
